DEDICATION

MR. FREDERIC C. CRINER

It is with deep gratitude and humble appreciation that we dedicate this annual to one of our most beloved and outstanding teachers, Frederic C. Criner. His dedication and zeal have inspired many students to strive for the higher and nobler ideals of life. His diligence and determination have instilled in us the love of knowledge and the will to do our best, and have made him prominent in his field. Many students have felt the vast influence of this beloved teacher as he has helped shape their future. A teacher such as he affects eternity; his influence is inestimable. It is the divine ability of such a teacher to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge. It is as Plato said, "Those having torches will pass them on to others."

FACULTY

SCHOOL BOARD: Mr. Karl Gerber, Mr. Harold Mason, Mr. C. Eugene Bennett, Mr. Morris Kuenzli, Mr. Robert Troup, Mr. Wayne Myers, and Mr. David Needs.

SCHOOL BOARD

SENIORS:

Your community has provided you with facilities, faculty, curriculum and activities they believe essential for a well-developed student and delighted in doing so. As you depart from your school, may you find happiness, good health, and abundant living in your endeavors. Someone has reminded us years past that God gives to every bird its food, but he does not throw it into the nest.

Sincerely,

Morris Kuenzli

President of the School Board

SECRETARY

Marie R. Vent
Principal's Secretary

Whether those of you who have completed twelve years of formal schooling find answers to our society's problems or simply add to its problems depends now, not upon parents or teachers, but upon each individual. Maturity means acceptance of personal responsibility for others in the community as well as for your own decisions and actions.

I have confidence that you will ever reinforce the trust we have placed in you to deal maturely with the persistent as well as the novel problems which will inevitably be yours in the coming years.

Sincerely,

Eugene Bennett

Superintendent

To the graduating class of 1963, I wish to express my sincerest congratulations. To you belongs the signal honor of being the first class to graduate from the new high school building.

As you leave your high school work, you will be faced with complex problems which have never been faced collectively, before. The complexity of these problems will demand unprecedented, many-sided solutions. It is my hope and belief that the school has given you a basis on which to build your solution to these problems. It is also my hope that in facing these problems that your hopes and dreams may be realized to the fullest degree.

Sincerely,

Howard Smith

Speaker -- Dr. Philip Auer of Galion, Ohio

Having received a 3.5 point average for a 5 six weeks' period, these students were honored at a Scholarship Banquet on May 4.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR SPEECH

SEATED: Mrs. Cynthia Fidler, Pat Hall. STANDING: Jim Bolton, Sydne Rome, John Reed, Janet Zischkau, Bernie Miller.

The primary aim of this organization is to provide an opportunity for those students interested in speech to participate in actual speaking tournaments throughout the state of Ohio. The areas in which a student may compete are humorous and dramatic declamation, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking and debate. This year's students traveled to Vermilion, Sylvania, and to the district tournament at Bowling Green.

Winning two trophies this year, Sydne Rome won 1st place at the Sylvania NOL meet and 1st place at the District contest. She placed 3rd in the State with her cutting from "Pygmalion" by George Bernard Shaw.

John Reed won 2nd place in the District contest and participated in the State contest. He presented an original oratory on "Segregation."

The Hi-Teens Club advised by Mrs. Elizabeth Burnett and Mrs. Katherine Tucker completed another very successful year. The club is composed of 137 sophomore, junior, and senior girls. The main projects this year were the distribution of Christmas gifts to the needy children in Wyandot County and the support of a Korean orphan with "Slave Day." The hi-lite of the year's activities was the holiday dance "Mistletoe Magic" co-sponsored by the Hi-Teens and Hi-Y. It is a sincere hope that these girls have profited from their experience in Hi-Teens and will continue to do so in the future years.

The 1963 Ram Band stepped snappily through ten half-time shows with intricate precision and a variety of clever dance steps. Their new script "Rams" was very popular with the fans and their dance steps, including "Ja-Da," the "Charleston," and "Turkey in the Straw," evoked much interest and applause from the crowd.

A one-week band camp was conducted by Mr. Stanley Hindmarch, band director, at the County Fairgrounds. Even though the band members groaned every day from the exercises they were required to perform, by the time marching season came around, they were in top condition.

At Homecoming the majorettes performed a special routine for the Queen and her Court using fire batons.

Drum major, John Reed, displayed his twirling ability as he led the band through their successful season.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1962-63 varsity football team ended their season with 4 wins and 6 losses. This was a tough team with a new determination to prove how good the Rams are. Their victories over Norwalk and Galion were notable because of the skill of the defensive team to stop their opponents. Also defeating Carey and Marion Catholic by the scores of 34-0 and 56-0 will be hard to forget. These Rams set the best record that an Upper Sandusky gridiron team has had in a long time.

"HARVEY"

Nov. 16, 1962, the Jr. Class presented their Jr. Class Play "HARVEY" directed by Mrs. Cynthia Fidler. Elwood P. Dowd, an eccentric millionaire, was befriended by a 6'2" pooka or white rabbit. The situation finally reached the point that his sister, Veta, aided by her friend, Mrs. Cheveneau, and her daughter, Myrtle Mae, decided to commit Elwood to Chumley's Rest. Although a famous institution, it was just not prepared for Elwood and his family. After Dr. Chumley saw the pooka, Veta decided that she wanted Elwood back at home. So Veta and company departed leaving Dr. Chumley and his "Rest" in peace.

"You've done somethin' with the Doctor and I'm findin' out what it is --"

"Don't touch him, Wilson."

"You two don't believe this story he tells about the Doctor sittin' there talkin' to a big white rabbit, do you?"

"This injection carries a violent reaction. We can't give it to him without his consent. Will he give it?"

"Of course he will, if I ask him."

"To give up this rabbit -- I doubt it."

"Don't ask him. Just give it to him."

"Perhaps they neglected to tell you that a rabbit has large pointed ears! That a hat for a rabbit would have to be perforated to make room for those ears? Do you realize what you have done? You don't answer. I'll tell you. You have permitted a psycopathic case to walk off these grounds and roam around with an overgrown white rabbit."

"BRIGADOON"

While hunting in Scotland Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas, two Americans, discover "Brigadoon," a town which comes into existence only one day every one hundred years. Spending this "one day" in the village, Tommy meets and falls in love with Fiona. However, as much as he wants to stay, he becomes somewhat bewildered over the conditions and enchantment of the "miracle" as set forth by Mr. Lundie and feels that he cannot accept "everythin'." Tommy and Jeff return to New York, but Tommy is so discontent that he returns to Scotland to see where the village had been. At this point Mr. Lundie appears and proves, "When ye love someone deeply, anythin' is possible -- even miracles."

DANCERS: Kathy Smith, Virginia Book, Liz Gerber, Bonny Kiess, Otis Rigney, Ann Harman, Jan Schnepp, and Margie Barick.

"THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK"

During the Second World War, Nazi persecution of the Jews forced many families into hiding. One such family, the Franks, found refuge in the attic of a Dutch warehouse where, along with four others, they waited hopefully for liberation. The lives of these eight people as they lived from day to day were recorded in the diary of the Frank's youngest daughter, Anne, who revealed with keen insight the laughter and the tears of these people.

The Senior play, cast a week before Easter, was given on May 2nd and 3rd.

"I knitted it in the dark."

"Please Mr. Frank, I beg you to answer the telephone."

"Thank you, Anne, thank you."

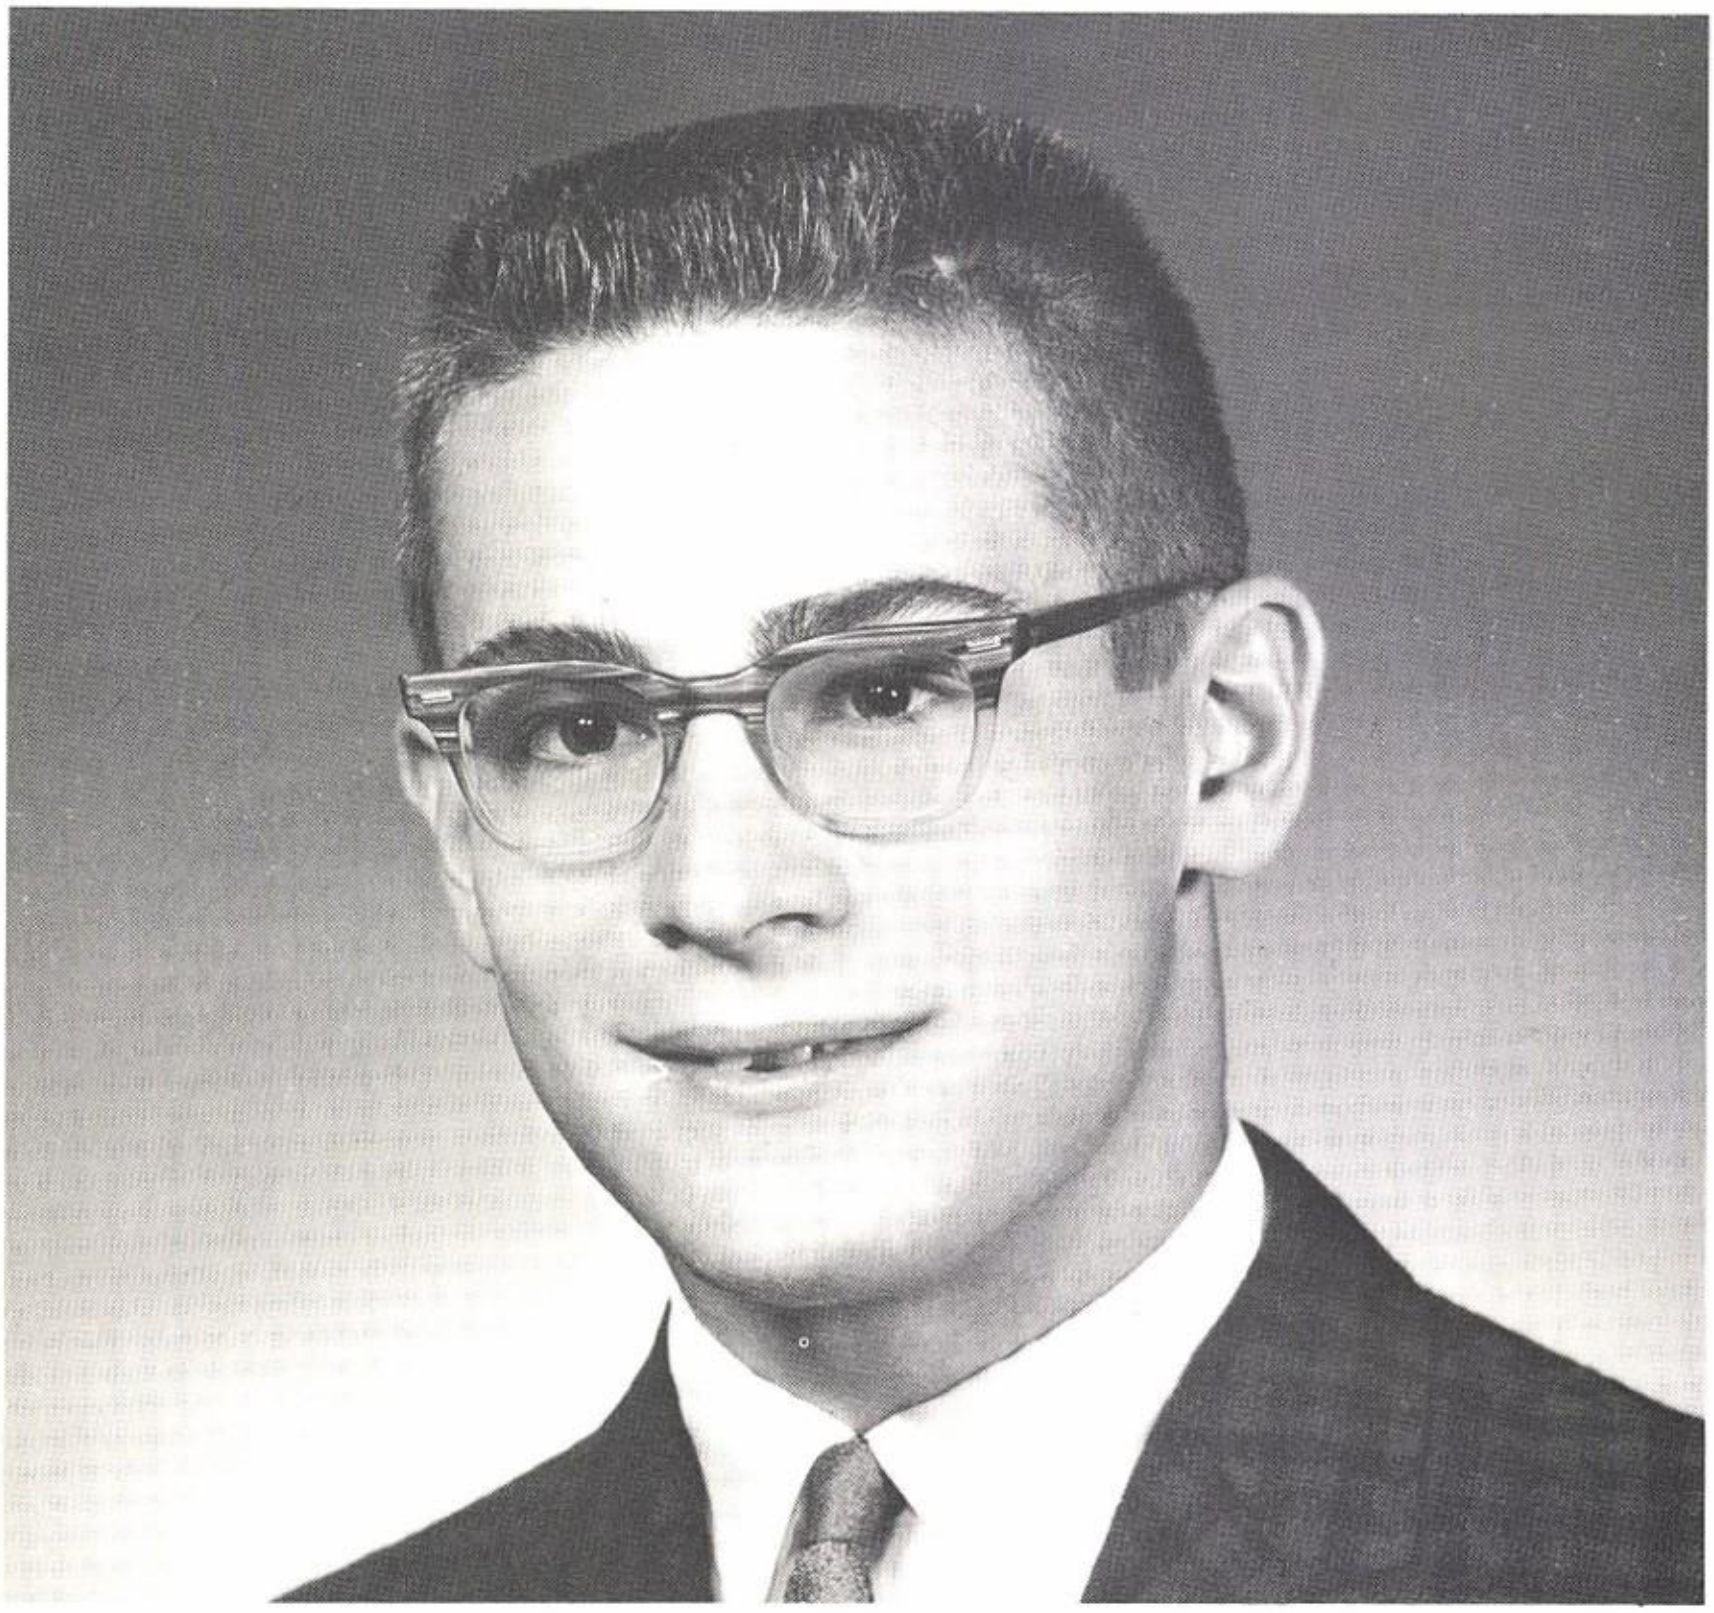
IN MEMORIAM TO PAUL KOLHOFF



A crescent-shaped moon on the crest of a cloud
Seals the earth in a moonlight-white shroud
To a lonely grave my restless thoughts fly
And I ask myself why my friend should die.

If goodness and truth are so tragically taken,
To what plight must malice and fault be foresaken?
For goodness and truth and worth be possessed,
With merit and virtue and love he was blessed.

A cold wind blows from a northern land
I touch cold marble with trembling hand . . .
Can life itself hold so much for tomorrow
That its going can cause such relentless sorrow?

For sadness in youth is sorrow enough;
Grey mist to cover a world of light . . .
But death in youth is grief without end;
Gone the sun to eternal night.
